Scan here for the best
move of your life

For more than 20 years, Southeast Moving & Storage has helped families, businesses, and property owners move with confidence. We understand that moving can feel stressful and overwhelming. For that reason, our team works hard to provide a smooth, organized, and professional experience from start to finish.

We are a licensed, insured, reliable moving & storage company proudly serving Chattanooga, Cleveland, Ooltewah, Hixson, East Brainerd, Collegedale, North Georgia, and surrounding areas.

Whether you are moving across town or across the country, our goal is to provide the white glove service your move deserves.

From careful packing and furniture protection to secure storage solutions, our team treats your belongings with respect and attention to detail. We believe communication matters, timelines matter, and customer care matters.

Whether you need local moving, long-distance moving, packing services, commercial relocation, or storage options, trust Southeast Moving & Storage to help make the process easier.
